

Cemetery Sunday in the Parish of Drumragh 2019

The annual Service of Intercession for the Dead takes place today, Sunday 2nd June, in Drumragh Cemetery at 3 pm and in the Dublin Road Cemetery at 5 pm. Those travelling by car to the Service in St Mary's, Drumragh, are asked to follow a one-way system. This is in the interests of road safety and to minimize traffic congestion. The access point for ALL vehicles approaching St. Mary's Cemetery is by Lough Muck Road, turning off the main Dromore Road opposite O'Kane Park and then turning right at the Fireagh crossroads. Stewards will direct you to car parking which will be adjacent to or within the graveyard area. The main car park at the cemetery is reserved for the use of disabled people only. We ask that everyone else park in the fields provided by local farmers as parking spaces in and around the Church and graveyard are very limited. Other cars will park on the grass area of the new graveyard. Please note all other entries to St. Mary's Church shall be closed before the ceremony. After the ceremony, when leaving the car park, motorists will be asked to turn right. At all times, it is important to respect and follow the instructions of the stewards. Those attending the Dublin Road Ceremony are asked to park their cars on the left side of the Dublin Road only (same side as the cemetery) and co-operate with parish stewards and PSNI personnel on duty. The Order of Malta Ambulance Service will be in attendance at both services. Please note: All families are asked to bring a small container of Holy Water with them for blessing their own graves at the appropriate time during the service.

McKeown ministered the Sacrament, anointed their foreheads and prayed for the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit to come down upon the confirmandi.

On Pentecost Sunday - ten days after Jesus went up to heaven - Jesus sent the Holy Spirit down upon his Apostles gathered in the upper room.

We would like to issue a special invitation to all those confirmed on 11th May to come along to the 12.30 pm Mass in the Sacred Heart Church to remember their confirmation day and celebrate the special gifts they received at this important time in their lives.
