Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday Cycle C

6th October 2019
Weekday Cycle 1

A Celebration of Our Beautiful Earth Wednesday 9th October

Over the last 3 weeks, we have been listening to speakers share their thoughts and insights on the Pope's document on caring for the environment.

Young people are particularly concerned about the environment and this is evident in their contribution to date. There is artwork and poetry on display in the Church by children from the schools. The primary schools have completed eco-projects on Endangered Species, From Field to Fork, Recycling and Care for our Common Home and these are a colourful and informative addition to the Church.

We are concluding this series on Wednesday 9th October with a celebration mass in the Sacred Heart Church at 7.30 pm. Come along and view the children's work, read the thoughts and poems of our older children, see the primary schools present their eco-projects and listen to our choirs raise their voices in praise of God's creation.

It is not too late to contribute. Leave your completed artwork or poem in the sacristy and we will display it in the Church. Refreshments and music afterwards in St Joseph's Hall.
