

Heaven's Grocery Store

One day I saw a sign that read Heaven's Grocery Store. As I got closer, the door was open wide and suddenly I found that I had gone inside. I saw a host of angels, standing everywhere. One angel said "My child, please shop with care. Everything a Christian needs is found right there." First I got some patience; love was in the same row. Further down was understanding, needed everywhere you go. I got a box or two of wisdom, a couple of bags of faith. I stopped to get some strength and courage to help me run the race. By this stage my basket was getting rather packed. But I added in some grace, in case it was what I lacked. I didn't forget salvation, for it was there for free. So I tried to get enough for both you and me. Then I started to the pay desk to settle up my bill. For I thought I had everything to do my Master's will. On my way I saw prayer and just had to put that in, for I knew when I stepped outside, I would run right into sin. Peace and joy were plentiful, they were on the last shelf. Song and praise were hanging near so I just helped myself. Then I said, "Can you tell me how much I owe?" The cashier just smiled and said "Jesus paid your bill a long time ago".
