The Challenge of Laudato Si': The Call to Care for the Earth – Our Common Home!

Drumragh Parish Pastoral Council invites you to a series of talks in the Sacred Heart Church, Omagh, on Pope Francis' encyclical letter on the Christian call to care for creation and protect the environment.

On Wednesday 25th September @ 7.30 pm: Laudato Si' as a Tool for Transformation – Dympna Mallon, Laity Co-ordinator with the Society of African Missions will offer inspiring insights on how we might use the papal document to make practical, positive changes in our lives that help to heal some of the hurt being done to our planet. Dympna, who is married with five children and one grandchild, is based in Dromantine, though her work takes her to all parts of Ireland as she meets and familiarises herself with the many facets of lay involvement in the SMA. Since 2008 Dympna has also been studying Theology through the Diocese of Armagh. She is a member of the Justice, Peace and Development Commission in the Archdiocese of Armagh, a member of the Diocesan panel of Safeguarding Information Facilitators and is the Adult Faith Coordinator for the Dungannon pastoral area.

Standing Order Set-Up

Following on from last week, two standing order forms can be downloaded from our parish website and will also be available in the parish office for all parishioners to complete. (See below for samples of the two forms available). Parishioners who contribute to both weekly collections will need to complete two forms. This is a necessary requirement as the general upkeep collection and building fund collection must be lodged to separate bank accounts

Weekly Upkeep Account Details

Sort Code 93-81-30

A/c No 6287 6606

Building Fund Account Details

Sort Code 93-81-30

A/c No 6287 6796

At each weekly mass the totals of the general upkeep collection and building fund collection will be given but broken down into amounts received by envelope and standing order.

The finance committee are aware that this a major change but would hope that as many parishioners as possible would sign up for the scheme as the committee believe that this is in the best financial interests of your parish. Finally, we thank you for your continued support to the weekly collections.
